I'm in It with You – Loreen

You took a shot
It took you down
But not a single drop of blood fell
They hit your heart
They took it out
And left you bleeding in a dry spell
What were you thinking?
Why did you let go?
I was still haunting you
What were you thinking?
Why did you not know?
When I was right there with you
If you ever fall I'll lift you up
If you lose your way I picked you up
And I'm in it with you
And I'm in it with you
It took a blade
It went in deep
And it was tearing up inside you
Must've been sharper underneath
Cause there were scars I couldn't undo
What were you thinking?
Why did you let go?
I was still haunting you
What were you thinking?
Why did you not know?
When I was right there with you
If you ever fall I'll lift you up
If you lose your way I picked you up
And I'm in it with you
And I'm in it with you
Now you took a shot
And I'm in it with you
And I'm in it with you
If you ever fall I'll lift you up
If you lose your way I picked you up

And I'm in it with you
And I'm in it with you
If you ever
If you ever
And I'm in it with you
And I'm in it with you, you
